

ENGLISH - OPTIONAL ENRICHMENT WORK

2020-2021

Part One: Reading Enrichment

- We hope you will read many books this summer. Here are suggestions from the teachers in the English Department:
  - Jane Eyre, Charlotte Bronte
  - The Passage, Justin Cronin
  - Such a Fun Age, Kiley Reid
  - American Dirt, Jeanine Cummins
  - Dear Edward, Anne Napolitano
  - The Last True Poets of the Sea, Julia Drake
  - The World that We Knew, Alice Hoffman
  - Middlesex, Jeffrey Eugenides
  - Petty, Warren Zanes
  - The Art of Fielding, Chad Harbach
  - Emma, Jane Austen
  - Citizen, Claudia Rankine
  - A Confederacy of Dunces, John Kennedy Toole
  - The World According to Garp, John Irving
  - Where Men Win Glory, John Krakauer
  - The Lord of the Rings Trilogy, J.R.R. Tolkein
  - The House of Spirits, Isabel Allende
  - The Year of Magical Thinking, Joan Didion
  - Silhouette of a Sparrow by Molly Beth Griffin
  - Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk, by Ben Fountain
  - I've Got Things to Do with My Life, by Mike Towle
  - The Earth, My Butt, and Other Big Round Things, Carolyn Mackler
  - Freakboy, Kristin Elizabeth Clark
  - The Gifts of Imperfection, Brené Brown
  - Einstein's Dream, Einstein, Published by Alan Lightman
  - All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr
  - Born a Crime by Trevor Noah

Part Two: Writing Enrichment

- Try journaling every week and maybe even every day