

LAWRENCE ACADEMY ACT PREP CLASS

TEST DATE: FEBRUARY 8, 2020

Summit Educational Group is pleased to partner with Lawrence Academy to offer our ACT Preparation Class beginning November 10, 2019.

Test preparation is an essential part of the college admissions process. By enrolling in Summit's ACT Preparation Class, your student is taking the first step down the road to achieving success in the competitive world of higher education.

Our course has been specifically designed to give students all the academic skills and strategies they will need on test day. After the practice test students will receive a detailed Score Report to track progress.

SUMMIT CLASSROOM PROGRAM POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Refund Policy: Students who register for the class but withdraw prior to the start of the first session will receive a full refund of the program price. Students who withdraw after the first session but prior to the start of the second session will receive a refund of the program price, minus $100. Students who withdraw after the second session but prior to the start of the third session will receive a refund of the program price, minus $150. No refund will be granted once the third session begins. Please note that you must contact the Summit office directly to withdraw from the program. Refunds will be based on the date of the call and not on the number of sessions the student has actually attended.

Behavior Policy: All students enrolled in a Summit course must maintain appropriate behavior at all times. Students must adhere to all school rules and regulations, respect their classmates and teachers, and contribute to a positive learning environment. Summit will not provide refunds to students expelled for behavioral reasons.

Extended Time: Students who have received approved extended time on the test from the College Board should contact the Summit Office to discuss the possibility of alternate accommodations. Please call us at 1-800-MYTUTOR.

Attendance/Make-Up Sessions: The schedule of classes has been pre-arranged with the host location. Students are required to attend each session. If a student must miss a practice test session, we will mail the test home for the student to complete. For more information on making up missed content, log in to our online portal following the missed class to read instructors' notes, or speak with the class instructor(s) directly. Summit will not offer makeup classes for missed lessons.

Class Cancellations: If classes are cancelled at the school, our classes will also be cancelled. School cancellations will be announced by the school. Summit will email parents and students of a class cancellation as soon as we have that information. The class will be made up at the next available opportunity.

Materials: Students are responsible for bringing supplies for personal use, such as pencils and calculators. Summit will provide all other course materials. Course materials will be distributed to students during the first instructional session of the class.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

Students who receive financial assistance from their school are eligible to receive a discount off the cost of the Summit course. Summit will match the percentage of financial aid offered by the school to students less a minimum payment of $250.

If you qualify for financial assistance, please fill out your registration online and enter the appropriate coupon code.

Your card will immediately be charged a minimum payment of $250. Once we receive confirmation of financial assistance from the school, we will notify you of the additional amount (if any) you are to be billed and charge your card.

Financial Assistance processing can take several weeks. To ensure Summit receives your information before classes begin, please complete your registration form by November 4. Please call us at 1-800-MYTUTOR with any questions.
