

Lawrence Academy Women's 2019 Volunteer Trip
Give Kids the World Village (Orlando, FL)

Lawrence Academy summer programs is sponsoring a Give Kids the World Women's Volunteer Trip June 18-June 25. Inspired by our GKTW Winterim, we want to share this experience with the women of LA, both faculty and parents. Kimberly Poulin, the GKTW Winterim leader, is planning and leading this trip.

Give Kids The World Village is an 84-acre, nonprofit resort in Central Florida that provides weeklong, cost-free vacations to children with critical illnesses and their families. Over 1800 volunteer hours are needed each week to keep the magic alive at GKTW. For four years, LA students have created memories and joy for hundreds of kids and their families. Check out these videos to learn more about GKTW Village and the volunteer experience.

This year we want to offer a similar experience to the adult women in our community. The trip is eight total days with five days of double volunteer shifts (morning and evening), one day off and two travel days. Visit this page to learn more about the different volunteer jobs at GKTW and scroll below to see our schedule. Each participant will volunteer 10 shifts, which range from 2 to 4 hours each. We will live in one house together with ample private bedrooms and bathrooms, a large living and kitchen space and private pool and spa. In between shifts, we will reflect on our experience, prepare meals together, and enjoy each other's company at the house or various resort amenities.

We are trying to get a sense of interest so we can finalize the registration and cost. Based upon 10-12 people going, the estimated cost falls within the $1500-$1800 range. It includes round trip airfare from Boston, MA or Manchester, NH, lodging, meals (some prepped and cooked by the group and some by a private chef), transportation to/from the house, the airport and GKTW and a GKTW t-shirt.

If you are interested in going on this volunteer trip with other like-minded LA women, please complete this online form by January 18. If there are at least 8-12 interested women, we will send out detailed registration information with an exact cost only to those who filled out this form so you can confirm and pay a portion of your trip. Completing the interest form means that you are able to attend and you want to receive the registration and payment information.
